Notification No. 20910, dated 16th March 1937.

THE TABARD MEMORIAL MEDAL.

CONDITIONS OF GRANT.

(a) A gold medal of the value of about Rs. 60 to be called "The Tabard Memorial Medal" and a money prize of Rs. 200 shall be awarded for the best essay submitted and accepted by the University on a subject connected with the objects of the Mythic Society, namely, the study of the sciences of Archæology, Ethnology, History, Religions and other allied subjects, more particularly relating to Mysore and Southern India and stimulating research in the foregoing subjects.

(b) Inscription of the medal—Each medal shall bear the inscription "Rajasabhabhushana A. M. Tabard, M.B.E., Gold Medal" on its obverse and such other inscription as the University Council shall deem fit on the reverse.

(c) The competition shall be held once in three years and shall be open to graduates of not more than ten years' standing of an Indian University.

(d) The subject shall be selected by the University Council in consultation with the Committee of the Mythic Society and announced at least 18 months before the date on which the essay is due.

(e) The essay should be forwarded to the Registrar, University of Mysore, Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 30th June of the year in which the award is made.

(f) Each candidate should state generally in an introductory note and specifically in foot-notes, the extent to which he has relied upon different sources of information and the portion which he claims as his original work.

(g) The essay should have a motto instead of the writers' name and should be accompanied by a sealed cover containing information regarding the name of the candidate, the year in which he took his first degree and the University, the highest University Examination passed by him, the University and the year in which he passed it, his post office address and a declaration that the essay sent by him is his own bona fide composition.

(h) The essay must be the result of personal investigation by the author and must contain clear evidence of independent and original research.

(i) Each candidate must forward three copies of his essay together with a statement as to when and where the work was carried out. If any portion of the work was done under collaboration or under guidance, the nature and extent of such collaboration or guidance must be clearly stated.

(j) If in the opinion of the judges no essay of sufficient merit has been submitted, the medal and prize shall not be awarded.

(k) In any year in which the medal and prize fall due but are not awarded, the interest shall be added to the corpus of the fund.

(l) The balance left over out of the interest accruing after the award shall be added to the corpus of the fund.

By Order,
V. GOPALASWAMI AIENGAR,
Registrar.
